

Dr. Sher-Lu Pai is the Director of the Pre-Operative Evaluation Clinic and the Educational Coordinator of the Division of Major Abdominal Transplant Anesthesiology at Mayo Clinic in Jacksonville, Florida. She is an Assistant Professor of Anesthesiology and Perioperative Medicine within the Mayo Clinic College of Medicine and Science and is certified by the American Board of Anesthesiology, holding medical licensure in both Florida and Texas.

Dr. Pai holds committee leadership positions in several professional societies. She serves as Chair for the Florida Society of Anesthesiologists (FSA) Communications Committee, Co-Chair for the FSA Task Force on Professional Diversity, Co-Chair for the Society for Ambulatory Anesthesia (SAMBA) Communications Committee, Chair for the Society for the Advancement of Transplant Anesthesia (SATA) Scientific Affairs Committee, Vice Chair for the American Society of Anesthesiologists (ASA) Abstract Review Subcommittee on Ambulatory Anesthesia, member for the ASA Committee on Ambulatory Surgical Care, member for the ASA Committee on Women in Anesthesia, and Vice Chair for the International Liver Transplant Society (ILTS) Equality, Diversity & Inclusion Committee.

Dr. Pai is a recognized speaker and lecturer for various national and international conferences. She has been invited for multiple visiting professorships at different universities. In addition to publishing more than 25 peer-reviewed journal articles, she serves as a reviewer for several scientific abstracts and medical journals.