

Asha Padmanabhan, MD, FASA is a Board-Certified Anesthesiologist, currently working in Boynton Beach, Florida. She is the Medical Director at Bethesda West Hospital and has served in several leadership positions including Chief of Department of Anesthesia at Plantation General Hospital, Treasurer and Managing Partner at Anesthesia & Critical Care Specialists of Palm Beach, Chair of P&T and several hospital committees.

She is an active member of several committees of the FSA and the ASA. She is a graduate of the American Society of Anesthesiologists Certificate of Business Administration, The Envision Physician Chiefs Leadership Academy (2016-2017) and the Tricounty Physician Leadership Academy (2019-2020).

She is passionate about empowering women physicians to become leaders and has founded and run several empowerment groups for female anesthesiologists and female physicians.